JEWELER WINS JURY VERDICT BEFORE NEW YORK SUPREME COURT

New York, New York (Thursday, August 3, 2006): Late last week a six person jury sitting before the Honorable Ira Gamerman, Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, reached a verdict which threw out all claims against Yaron Kaminsky, a former co-founder, co-owner and co-operator of 4 NOA, Inc., a fine jewelry retailer that was located in Soho, New York City. The lawsuit, brought by the Estate of Derrick Daniels, a former customer of 4 NOA, Inc., alleged that Mr. Kaminsky lost over $100,000 in jewelry after Mr. Daniels returned the items to Mr. Kaminsky for resale. The Complaint went on to allege that Mr. Kaminsky personally signed a promissory note for the value of that jewelry and that Mr. Kaminsky not only breached that agreement but duped Mr. Daniels in the execution of the note.

In what was a very unusual act, the Supreme Court threw out the claims in the Complaint and submitted different questions of liability to the jury. Richard A. Roth, Esq., counsel for Mr. Kaminsky, stated: "The Court changed the entire case after the evidence was submitted, sending questions to the jury that were never part of the initial claim. Justice Gamerman did, however, in what was also an unorthodox move, allow Defendants to present evidence on those issues after the close of Defendant's case." Mr. Roth continued: "Notwithstanding that significant change, the jury still concluded that the Estate failed to prove that Mr. Kaminsky could be liable in any way to the Estate. The jury made the right decision.”
